

Catholic Education Ballarat is excited to offer the opportunity to meet with and hear from Dr Miriam Rose Ungunmerr Baumann AM during National Reconciliation Week. National Reconciliation Week (NRW) is a time for all Australians to come together to learn about our shared histories, cultures, and achievements, and to explore how each of us can contribute to achieving reconciliation in Australia.

Dr Miriam Rose Ungunmerr Baumann AM, 2021 Senior Australian of the year, is a renowned Aboriginal Artist, Activist, Writer and Public Speaker who is dedicated to creating bright and fulfilling futures for Aboriginal children and youth. She was the first fully qualified Aboriginal teacher in the Northern Territory and is the founder of the Miriam Rose Foundation. Miriam Rose speaks five local languages along with English and is responsible for establishing the highly successful Merrepen Arts Centre in Nauiyu.

In 1998, Miriam Rose was appointed a Member of the Order of Australia, for her services to Aboriginal education and art, and her services to the Nauiyu community. Miriam has worked as Principal at the St. Francis Xavier School at Daly River.

Among Miriam Rose’s many gifts is her sharing of inner deep listening and quiet still awareness. Miriam will share something of this ‘Dadirri’ gift in the context of reconciliation.
