

Recontextualising Pedagogy National Conference

Monday 29 November: 9am – 4.30pm (dinner optional)
Tuesday 30 November: 9.00am – 3.30pm

Venue: Catholic Leadership Centre Melbourne

Expressions of interest are invited from researchers, leaders and school practitioners to lead workshops in the following areas.

Workshops

- Leading in the ECSI Space
eg Leading for a shift from Christian Values Education to Recontextualisation; System leadership for learning in ECSI; Teacher leadership in RE pedagogy; Systems designing curriculum for recontextualisation
- Student Agency and Recontextualisation
eg Students as active agents of recontextualisation; Students as Dialogue Partners
- Teacher professional learning
eg Engaging in professional dialogue as encounter; Teacher as Witness, Moderator, Specialist; Formation for Recontextualisation
- Teacher practice for recontextualisation
eg A recontextualising classroom; Catholic Identity and student questions; Ways of being in a recontextualising dialogue classroom; Fostering inquiry in RE.

Click here for the Expression of Interest form. Applications close 30 July 2021.
Successful presenters will be notified by 30 August.

Workshops are encouraged to reflect and model recontextualising approaches and practices.

Contact Dr Rina Madden for further information.

+61 3 9412 3333 | rina.madden@ctc.edu.au | 278 Victoria Parade East Melbourne | www.ctc.edu.au

CRICOS: 01037A