

National Copyright Unit's free webinars in 2025

The National Copyright Unit is offering a series of free webinars to help teachers navigate copyright. These webinars are open to all Australian government and non-government schools, TAFEs (excluding Victorian TAFEs) and are targeted to educators, librarians and school administrators.

Copyright for Educators: Long-form webinars

Long webinars (6-hours for Schools and 4-hours for TAFE) that cover a range of topics including an introduction to copyright, statutory and voluntary licences, education exceptions, Creative Commons, Music, Artificial Intelligence (AI) and Netflix.

The NCU Copyright Hour

In 2025 we are running one-hour webinars on the below topics:

- Copyright for School Resource Developers
- Copyright for TAFE Resource Developers

Copyright Half-Hour webinars

These are short webinars, on specific copyright topics, that will run for 30-minutes. Below are the topics that will be covered:

- Copyright Basics
- Artificial Intelligence (AI) and Copyright
- Using Text and Artistic Works in Schools/TAFEs and Copyright Infringement Notices
- Using Film and Video in Schools/TAFE
- Creative Commons
- Music and Copyright

For more details and to register for the webinars, please visit our website:

<https://smartcopying.edu.au/national-copyright-seminar-series/>

"Large copyright sign made of jigsaw puzzle pieces" by Horia Varlan is licensed under CC BY 2.0

Tel: 02 7814 3855

smartcopying@det.nsw.edu.au

