

DAMASCUS COLLEGE

International Women's Day

BREAKFAST PANEL

Thurs 6 March | 7am - 8.30am | Damascus Events Centre

Continental breakfast supplied

Carly Myers (OAM)

*Gender & Disability Advisor,
Women's Health Grampians*

Carly is a passionate gender and disability practitioner, Carly uses her lived experience of disability to advocate for the voices of women with disabilities to be prioritised when decisions are being made on issues directly affecting them. She contributes to the development and delivery of projects that seek to address the gendered and ableist drivers of violence against women with disabilities.

Deborah Clark

Koorie Education Coordinator, Department of Education Victoria

Deb is an educator of more than 27 years, with a specialisation in Indigenous Leadership. In addition to educational leadership Deb is a singer-songwriter. Deb is a proud Meriam woman of the Torres Strait Islands. Born on Wadawurrung land, Deborah expresses the social justice issues of the Australian landscape through her music giving Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander language and culture a space to be seen and heard.

Dee Angelina Micevski

*Gender Equality in Sport Lead,
Women's Health Grampians*

Dee is a CoRE Consultant at WHG in preventing violence against women and promoting gender equality, as well as the lead for WHG Gender Equality in Sport and Recreation. Dee merges a professional and personal lived experience of being involved in sport, and works with local sporting organisations, supporting them to become more inclusive, welcoming, safe and equal, and in particular engaging men and boys in prevention work.

SCAN TO REGISTER OR VISIT
www.trybooking.com/CZFUS

BE MY BEST